

McHALE & ATLAS
TEAM

Meet the Team!

While our core team will always go above and beyond our clients, know that we are always collaborating with other agents, interior designers, virtual stagers, contractors, and whoever else we need to ensure the job gets done with white glove service.

Dillon Knop

After zooming up to a showing on his electric unicycle and giving you an honest and transparent opinion of the property, he'll walk you through the purchase or application process and leave you daydreaming about a future in your next home. His life mission has been to diversify his knowledge, settling into NY real estate because, let's face it, there is always more to learn. From difficult board applications and managing agents, alteration permits and HVAC/plumbing/gas/electrical systems, to 3D tours, magazine collaborations, landlord/tenant laws, financing strategies and much more, Dillon has the knowledge to paint a full picture for you and the network of experts who will drive your deal to the finish line.

As a child of the interior design world, Greg spent his youth traveling around the cities and countrysides of Great Britain and France buying antique furniture and accessories from the most fascinating hidden haunts any kid could imagine. After becoming a full-time New Yorker in 1994, Greg spent a decade scouting exceptional locations and managing logistics in the film business for many top Hollywood directors, producers and actors. In 2004, Greg pivoted into New York's swift and dynamic world of real estate. Fast forward 17 years, Greg is the founder of The McHale & Atlas Team at Compass, one of the top real estate teams in Manhattan and Brooklyn with over a billion dollars in sales to date.

Lara Quiñones

Hailing from Puerto Rico to attend Tisch School of the Arts at NYU, Lara has lived in a variety of neighborhoods. She affectionately calls Brooklyn home, most recently having moved to Bedstuy after well over a decade in and around East Williamsburg. Lara was first bewitched by the melting pot of culture and history that lives on within the walls of this great city. Her favorite part of Real Estate is walking into a beautiful space that has been preserved but largely untouched for decades, that juju speaks volumes.

Fluent in Spanish, English, and artistic-type, Lara assists a wide range of clients. She is a self-proclaimed music junkie and can be found spending much of her hard-earned dollars on concert tickets.
